

Services investigation work on Barrenjoey Road and Neptune Road, Newport between Monday 13 November and Monday 27 November 2017.

The NSW Government is delivering improved public transport between the Northern Beaches and the Sydney CBD. This includes service and infrastructure upgrades to provide a new B-Line bus service. The B-Line will provide a more frequent, reliable, turn-up-and-go bus service for customers travelling between Newport and the Sydney CBD.

Details of work activities

Surveying and services investigation work will continue in November to help identify where existing water, sewer and electricity services are located.

The majority of the service investigation work will be completed on Barrenjoey Road and Neptune Road over five nights between Monday 13 November and Monday 27 November, weather permitting. Most of the work will be completed at night to minimise impacts to traffic and for the safety of motorists and our team.

- night work hours are 7pm to 5am
- day work hours, should it be required, are 7am to 6pm

This work will help us understand where services are and help us prepare a concept plan which will be included in a Review of Environmental Factors (REF). The REF will be out for community consultation early next year.

How will the work affect you?

There may be some noise associated with this work, but we will make every effort to minimise it by completing the noisier work before 11pm.

Equipment being used includes:

- concrete saws
- vacuum trucks
- power and hand tools
- Light vehicles for site and traffic control

There will be no interruptions to your utility services while this work takes place. The work will take place on the road verge and public areas. Access to private property is not required.

Traffic and pedestrian changes

There may be some temporary traffic and pedestrian changes to ensure the work zone is safe. Please keep to speed limits and follow the direction of traffic controllers and signs.
